

Wireless Industry in Maine

The Wireless Infrastructure Association (WIA) represents the businesses that build, own, and operate the nation's wireless infrastructure. On the federal, state, and local levels, WIA advocates for the widespread, responsible deployment of wireless infrastructure to enable mobile broadband access for communities everywhere.

The wireless
industry...

supports
over 4.7M
jobs

contributes $475B to the U.S. economy

is expected to invest $275B
over 7 years

State Impact of the Wireless Industry

$431M

in GDP growth

2,645

jobs created

$233M

estimated 5G
network investment

More than half of

U.S. homes now depend exclusively on wireless telephones to communicate.

47.7%

of households have "cut the cord" and rely entirely on wireless services in

Maine

- David Safer Et Al., How the Wireless Industry Powers the U.S. Economy (Accenture Strategy, 2018)
- Local impact figures estimated for GDP growth, job creation and network investment are based on the top 10 cities by state data from: Majed Al Amine Et Al., How 5G Can Help Municipalities Become Vibrant Smart Cities (Accenture Strategy, 2017)
- U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, National Health Interview Survey Early Release Program (2019)

Learn more at wia.org