

Wireless Industry in Michigan

The Wireless Infrastructure Association (WIA) represents the businesses that build, own, and operate the nation's wireless infrastructure. On the federal, state, and local levels, WIA advocates for the widespread, responsible deployment of wireless infrastructure to enable mobile broadband access for communities everywhere.

The wireless
industry...

supports
over 4.7M
jobs

contributes $475B to the U.S. economy

is expected to invest $275B
over 7 years

State Impact of the Wireless Industry

$2.69B
in GDP growth

16,484
jobs created

$1.45B
estimated 5G
network investment

More than half of U.S. homes now depend exclusively on wireless telephones to communicate.

57.3%
of households have “cut the cord” and rely entirely on wireless services in Michigan

